Demonstration Against Rhee Flares in Korea

By K. C. HWANG

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Tear gas and gunfire exploded again in Seoul tonight as Koreans renewed their demonstrations against President Syngman Rhee and his vice president who, many claim, was elected through fraud.

For the first time since last week's riots took 130 lives, crowds gathered in the streets to demand the resignation of the 65-year-old president and his running mate, Vice President Lee Ki-poong.

A crowd of a few hundred students tried to break into the vice president-elect's home, and gunfire broke out. Apparently the shots were blanks, fired either by the soldiers enforcing martial law or the police.

Several persons were injured in this clash. A report that three demonstrators had been killed was distributed by the Hapdong agency, but it was withdrawn later. Hapdong said the information was not borne out.

Seoul was placed under second-degree "security martial law" during the day, but full martial law was reinstated tonight.

Soldiers with gas masks and fixed bayonets fired tear gas into one crowd of 5,000 students and civilians led by 200 middle-aged college professors who marched on the National Assembly building.

The crowd called for the BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Racial violence over attempts by Negroes to swim at segregated beaches Sunday resulted in gunfire that wounded 10 persons. Four others were injured in beachfront fighting.

The first injured were four Negroes who went swimming in the Gulf of Mexico off the all-white beach in this resort city of 45,000. By midnight both whites and Negroes had been wounded in scattered clashes.

Police patrolled the city today, Mississippi's worst race riot erupted suddenly on this 28-mile sun on a lazy Sunday afternoon, man-made beach under a warm Three bloody chapters followed in confused sequence.

First, about 50 Negro men, women and children gathered across the highway from a white hotel on the sand. Some stepped into the Gulf of Mexico, the signal for a group of whites to show up. Fighting broke out. Whites chased Negroes off the beach.

Next, four Negro men and about 25 women and children gathered on the beach in front of the New Biloxi Hospital about a mile away from the first fight. A white group broke up the crowd when some of the Negroes stepped into the Gulf.

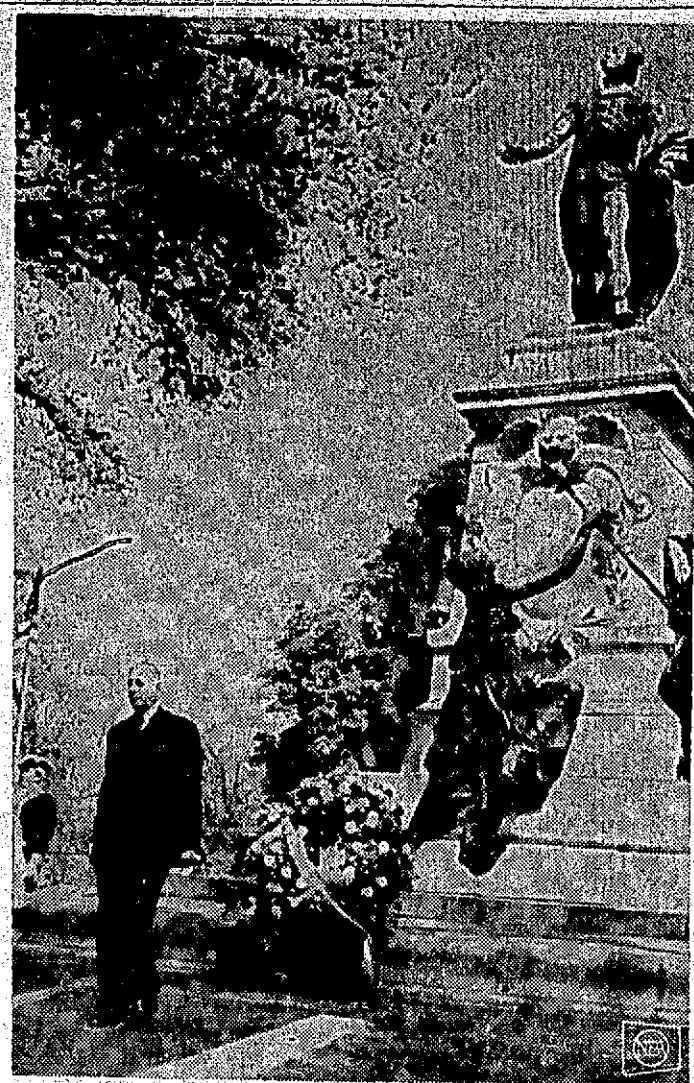

There was no official version of the fighting, but the four Negroes injured in this melee said their attackers hit them with chains, blackjacks and sticks.

Still later, a huge crowd of Negroes massed in front of the home of Dr. Gilbert Mason, Negro physician. Onlookers variously estimated the crowd at 400 and 500.

Dr. Mason tried to break the beach color barrier by swimming in the Gulf last week. Police arrested him on a disorderly conduct charge. His case is pending in city court.

Court Orders Legal Test of New Law

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today ordered a legal test of a new law which sets up strict regulations and heavy fees for "juke boxes" and other coin-operated amusement devices.

The court sent back to Pulaski Chancery Court a complaint of W. Jake Brown, who operates Tia Wanna Club near Little Rock, and Lynn Farr of Texarkana, Tex., operator of Central Music Co., against the 1959 act.

Brown and Farr alleged the act was discriminatory and asked that it be declared unconstitutional.

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney, the defendant, filed a demurrer—a legal pleading that there was no basis for the suit.

Chancellor Murray O. Reed sustained the demurrer and dismissed the suit without trial.

The Supreme Court said this was an error and directed a trial

Norman Jones Seeks Post in Legislature

The Star has been authorized to announce the candidacy of Norman Jones for representative. In making his announcement, Mr. Jones issued the following statement:

"Dear Friends: Many of you throughout the county from time to time have encouraged me to seek public office, and I have always appreciated that encouragement. Now, after giving serious consideration to political venture, I am seeking the office of County Representative. This is the office I believe I could better serve all the good people of our county in better than any other office you would have to bestow upon any good public servant you would choose.

At present I am busily engaged with my school duties, and I take this means of asking you to please consider my candidacy for this all important job. Your vote and support will be most deeply appreciated in the coming Democratic Primary.

I believe my training and experience fully qualify me for the office I am seeking. I have had training and experience in most of the endeavors of life (including general farming, assistance for needy, general merchandising, road improvement, general building, etc.) I have worked in our beloved county for the past 18 years as a school superintendent. Nine years of this time I spent as superintendent of school at Spring Hill where we raised the rating of the school from a C to an A with many other improvements too numerous to mention.

One of which was putting the school on a sound financial basis raising the operating balance from zero to several thousand dollars. To offer you further proof of my ability to conduct business as it should be done, may I state to you that I was employed by the Blevins School District nine years ago after it had suffered a seven months financial term on account of poor financial condition. Since my employment we have raised the rating of the school, constantly maintained a nine months school term, built a complete new Negro school plant, and are approaching approximately an operating balance of $100,000.

I give you the above facts to let you know that I believe in sound operation of our governmental units.

If you will elect me your representative, I will see that your tax dollar goes where it is intended. I will stress economy in our government. Yet improved services in our old age benefits, roads, schools and more industry for our county and state. We can have increased benefits and I mean without further taxation if you will help me get that portion of our tax dollar that rightly belongs to us for our different services. You help me now and I will help you when the Legislature meets.

I plan to see every citizen of our county and offer you a specific platform and an aggressive campaign.

Yours for a better Hempstead County.

Cost of Living Reaches New March Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's living costs hit a new record in March.

The first rise in food prices in six months edged the Labor Department's consumer price index to a new peak of 125.7 per cent of the 1947-49 living cost average.

The average price increase over the February level was only one-tenth of one per cent. The March average was 1.6 per cent above the same month last year.

Arnold Chase, Labor Department price chief, forecast that food prices will continue on a gradual rise up to July or August. He said the chances are this will carry living costs to still higher levels until late summer.

The March living cost rise brought a one-cent-per-hour pay increase to more than 800,000 employees of the railroad industry. The adjustment means a payroll increase of about 16 million dollars a year.

There were the usual spring up-trends in prices of clothing and gasoline in March and seasonal declines in prices of new and used automobiles and home heating oil.

Chase said he saw no cause for alarm in the fact that living costs have hit a new high. He said prices actually have not gone up as much as experts had believed they would.

"I think this kind of development can be expected in an evenly balanced economy such as we appear to have had in the past several months," he said.

Two Injured in Wreck on Highway 67

Two weekend accidents were reported by Arkansas State Police, one resulting in injury to two persons.

At 1:30 a.m. Saturday an auto driven by Eddie Muldrow, Negro, ran into the rear of another vehicle, driven by Charles Lee, also a Negro. Officers Pankey and Ward charged Muldrow with driving while intoxicated.

Saturday night, on Highway 67 west, a transport truck driven by Owen H. Stewart of Denison, Tex., rammed into a pickup truck driven by Lucius Boyce, Mr. Boyce suffered a broken leg and a companion, Charles Caldwell, suffered cuts on his arm. Officers Ward and Pankey investigated.

Committees Important to Senior Play

Behind the scenes of the 1960 Senior Class Play, "So We'll Just Pretend," are three committees which Mrs. B. B. McPherson, director, thinks are very important to the success of the play.

Erecting an assembling the set for Larry Vaughn, outstanding Bobcat, Jerry Owen, Bobcat guard Larry Walton, Cager forward and George McGill, Bobcat center.

David Lewis and Sherrie Hankins, Top 16 Seniors, are co-business managers. On their committee are Caryl Meyers class secretary, Cynthia Harrison, semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Test; Patsy Burroughs, a member of the National Honor Society, and Nancy Reese, student council representative. This group will push the sale of tickets.

Hand drawn pictures advertising the play have been placed in various business houses in the city. These pictures were drawn by Georgeanne Lowe, vice president of Mu Alpha Theta who with Gilbert Brown, a Top 16 Senior, Cecilia Cox, class treasurer and Sue Ann Smith, 1960 Homecoming Queen, compose the publicity committee. This group is responsible for the advertising of the play.

"These committees and Sharon Foster, Student Director, will make 'So We'll Just Pretend' possible," says Mrs. McPherson, play director.

Girls State Delegates Named

SELECTION OF GIRLS FOR GIRLS STATE WAS MADE extremely difficult this year, because of the talents and qualifications of so many in the Junior Class and, too, because facilities at the camp have necessitated a reduction in the number sent from each unit. In prior years Hope has been allowed four girls, but this year, of necessity, the number was reduced to three. Girls State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. This year, as in the past, the Auxiliary is assisted in financing the trip by the P. E. C.; the Century Bible Class and the Kiwanis Club. The girls and the Auxiliary are grateful for such kind cooperation.

Shipwrecked Americans Kill Skipper of Rescue Boat, Rob Passengers, Escape to Cuba

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Two shipwrecked Americans plundered their rescuers, shot a charter boat skipper to death and made off with his boat in a piratical exploit at a lonely Bahama island Sunday.

The pair fled into Cuban waters while an unarmed U.S. Coast Guard plane hovered overhead, powerless to interfere.

Another Coast Guard plane rescued the wife of one fugitive, a crewman of the stolen Isla Murada, Fla., cabin cruiser Muriel III, and four Pennsylvanians—fishermen who told of being terrorized by the desperadoes' debate over whether to kill all witnesses to the slaying of Capt. Angus Boatwright, 55.

The woman gave her name in Nassau as Barbara Table, 18, and said she was shipwrecked with her husband, Alvin, 23, and William Sees, alias Johnson, 23, Tuesday in a boat the three took from Key West, Fla.

The Muriel III was off Ellow Cay, 106 miles south of Miami, when Boatwright spied mirror signals and saw the wreckage of a boat.

"The skipper was pretty leery about going in close," said Kent Horkanson, 21, mate of the Muriel and Edward McGrady of Pittsburgh. "We thought they might be burg snugglers or Cubans."

"Then this guy 'Sees' swam out questioning by British authorities. We let him aboard and he wanted us to go in closer and I'll office said the Tables and pick up another man and a girl. City of Lar Is Destroyed as Well as Village

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A shattering earthquake has leveled the south Iranian city of Lar and the Red Cross tonight estimated about 700 were killed and several thousand injured.

Dr. Hussein Khalili, Iranian Red Cross director, who made the estimate, said he believed early official estimates of 1,200 to 1,500 were exaggerated. He said upward of 300 bodies have been recovered and buried.

The quake struck Sunday. Destruction of two school buildings trapped many children in this most ruinous disturbance of the earth's crust since 12,000 were killed in Agadir, Morocco, the night of Feb. 29.

The children had assembled in the schools for children's day celebrations. Rescue workers recovered 380 small bodies from the debris.

One hundred bodies were found elsewhere in a continuing hunt through the city of 17,000. Of Lar's police force of 55 men, only one was said to have survived.

Gov. Nosrati Qarbi reported the city destroyed.

"The town's strongest building—my own office—has collapsed," Qarbi said in the first report announcing the disaster. "Nothing can be seen because of the billowing clouds of dust. Please rush food and tents."

Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi ordered quick relief measures. Iranian air force planes parachuted flour, sugar and eggs into the area and set up an airlift to ferry in other food, medicine and tents.

The U. S. government was the first foreign government to pledge aid. It made 100 tons of flour quickly available.

Queen Farah ordered government authorities to bring to her Tehran orphanages all the children of Lar who lost their parents in the quake.

Lar is 550 miles south of Tehran. Special trains and other conveyances moved injured victims to a city hospital in Shiraz, 170 miles north of Lar.

The village of Gerashi, 15 miles south of Lar, also was completely destroyed. The village had a population of about 1,000 and only a few hundred survived, authorities said.

The first shock struck about 4:15 p. m., sending most of the buildings in the city crashing down. Officials reports most persons inside at the time were killed.

A second quake hit about six hours later and reportedly destroyed what had been left standing.

Rescue workers who reached Lar this morning feared the only survivors would be those who were in the open air and away from buildings when the first quake struck.

Seismologists in Norway said the Lar quake registered on their instruments stronger than the quake which shattered Agadir.

Registration at Harding

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Registration began at Harding College today for the 21st annual Freedom Forum.

The four-day seminar of the 1960 Forum starts tomorrow with a keynote address by George S. Benson, president of the college. Featured speakers include Gen. James A. Van Fleet, who commanded the Eighth Army in Korea for two years.

A college official said today the Lar quake registered on their instruments stronger than the quake which shattered Agadir.

All were flown to Nassau for questioning by British authorities. The Monroe County, Fla., sheriff wanted us to go in closer and I'll office said the Tables and pick up another man and a girl. Insurance Case Settled by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today settled the question of which of two liability insurance companies with somewhat similar names will have a pay off if a dismissed workman at Fort Smith is awarded workmen's compensation.

The Supreme Court said the Employers Mutual Liability Insurance Co., which has been the insurer for Eastern Metals Product Co. of Fort Smith since Nov. 14, 1956 would be liable.

The ruling reversed the Workmen's Compensation Commission and Sebastian Circuit Court which had said Employers Liability Assurance Corp., Ltd., insurance carrier for Eastern before Nov. 14, 1956, would be liable.

After Monte D. Cotner was fired by Eastern on June 27, 1958, he applied for compensation, grounds that a skin infection growing out of his work had caused a permanent partial disability. He had worked for the company since July 9, 1956.

The question of whether he was entitled due compensation was deferred by agreement until it could be settled which insurer would have to pay if an award was made.

In holding against the new insurer, the Supreme Court said the law determined liability by the time the employee was last "injuriously exposed."

The last injurious exposure—if others should be held entitled to compensation—came after the change of insurers, the court said. The unanimous opinion was written by Justice Paul Ward.

signation of Rhee, all Supreme Court justices and all members of the Assembly. It fell back, apparently stunned, when the soldiers used tear gas. Most seem to have believed the soldiers were on their side. Three medium tanks rumbled into the streets, guns trained on the demonstrators.

The renewed demonstrations in effect were a noisy popular rejection of President Rhee's plans to bring political peace to South Korea.

Rhee, has promised to run the country as a nonpartisan president, surrendering his leadership of the Liberal party, but he showed no inclination to give up his autocratic powers. He is under heavy criticism for failing to call new elections.

Hours after the march began to the Assembly building, more than 2,000 remained massed in the area, guarded by cordon of about 300 infantrymen. In the distance, tanks could be seen blocking the streets toward the Capitol and Rhee's presidential palace.

Kwak San-hoon of the minority Democratic party told the National Assembly that "Rhee should apologize to the entire nation" for the wholesale police shooting of antigovernment demonstrators last Tuesday.

The rioting stemmed from charges that the mid-March elections were rigged to make Rhee's political heir, ailing Lee Ki-poong, vice president. Rhee was opposed for the presidency after his Democratic party opponent died a month before the election. Both Rhee and Lee received landslide votes.

Rhee announced Sunday he was cutting all ties with his powerful but now discredited — Liberal party and would "seek to serve the nation solely as the chief executive as head of the administration."

In promising reforms "to correct the mistakes of the past," the aging leader sidestepped any personal responsibility for last week's slaughter. He made no mention of new elections. Neither did he say anything about reports that he would become a figurehead chief of state and turn the government over to a premier responsible to Parliament.

The official death toll of the "bloody Tuesday" rioting rose to day as more injured died. The number of wounded and injured was scaled down to 693.

Tension continued to ease in the troubled nation of 23 million. Army censorship of newspapers, imposed after the rioting, was lifted. The independent newspaper Chosun Ilbo said, "We wonder if Rhee will ever show sincerity toward solving the crisis," and added: "What else is there to set right if it is not the fraudulent election itself, which was the direct cause of the bloodshed?"

Two of Rhee's close aides said over the weekend that he was planning to set up a European-style premier-cabinet form of government.

For 12 years Rhee has run South Korea as pretty much a one-man show, contemptuous of opposition. But the rioting has brought increasing pressure at home and from the United States for more democracy in the hard-pressed nation.

Rhee's hand may be forced by the resignation of Vice President John M. Chang 3½ months before his term expires. The constitution provides for a new election immediately to fill the unexpired term.

In South Korea the president and vice president run separately, and Chang, 60, is leader of the opposition Democratic party. He lost his bid for re-election in the disputed March election to Rhee's protégé Lee Ki-poong, head of the Liberal party machine.

Joseph Fouche, an ex-monk, became Napoleon's minister of police. Napoleon told Fouche: "Tell the newspaper editors that I shall hold them responsible not for criticism, but for their failure to praise."

In 1954 the company and the union entered into a union security agreement which required that employees join the union to keep their jobs. The union did not represent a majority of the employees. A year later an employee charged that enforcement of the union security provision violated the labor law.

The National Labor Relations Board ruled the union and company had violated the law; that such agreements are valid only when negotiated with a union representing a majority of the employees.

The board said the unlawfulness of the 1954 agreement continued so long as the contract remained in effect, and hence the six months limitation did not apply.

Bryan and the union were ordered to cease giving effect to the agreement and to reimburse employees for dues and initiation fees checked off.

The union and company appealed. The U.S. Court of Appeals here upheld the board's ruling, but today's Supreme Court ruling reverses that court.

Chapter XIX

There was something special about the goodbyes. Hitherto when Tim had gone off to college or Debbie to camp, the hugs had been affectionate but perfunctory, as if they knew they left her in better hands. Now, they were anxious.

Alone, Rose worked outdoors a little, but took the African violets over to Ann Bailey who had exclaimed over them the first time she came to call.

"I've always wanted to try and raise them," she'd said, "but in the city we didn't have the right exposure."

Why not let her try? They weren't doing as well as usual, they were no longer show plants. Rose faithfully gave them the correct amount of food, light, air and water, but they seemed listless.

Perhaps even plants knew you no longer cared about them; when you cared, they responded. This was a foolish promise, but how else could she account for the fact that once removed to Ann Bailey's — she'd given her the stands and trays — they thrived?

Rose thought painfully: Everything responds to love—or to its lack.

Pete telephoned her early one evening. She had taken a supper tray to the terrace, refusing an invitation to dine out. People still asked her, though not as often as some months ago.

Pete asked, "Are you at supper?"

"In a manner of speaking, cold ham, salad, coffee and fruit, out on the terrace, why?"

"If you're alone, could I come see you?"

"Of course, I'll fix you a tray." "No thanks. I had a big lunch and I'll get a sandwich on the way."

"On the way? Aren't you home?"

"No. I'm in town." He turned up a little sooner than she expected. It was pleasant on the terrace and she'd put the coffee pot on again so when he came there was fresh coffee to drink under a risen moon.

He said, sitting with her: "Karen's left me."

No use to say, "It isn't possible," or anything except, "When?"

"Three days ago. She didn't leave a note on the pin cushion. She told me after breakfast. All she said was, 'I'm leaving you, Pete. I didn't believe her—she's said it a million times.'"

"Like that?"

"No. She couldn't see his face. It was dark now and the hurricane light showed her only that he sat hunched forward in his chair, his face in shadow."

"No. She used to say, 'I want to leave you,' or 'Will you let me leave you?'"

"Did she say where she was going?"

"No. She knows that wherever it is—Florida, Nevada, Mexico—I won't give her a divorce."

Rose thought about that. Presently she asked, "You've never given her anything, have you?"

She said him stir. He said angrily, "What do you mean by of the case on its merits. Whatever the new Chancery Court ruling, the case probably will reach the Supreme Court again on appeal.

The act, the high court noted, declares the owning, operating or leasing of the coin-operated machines a privilege, requires an annual fee of $250 and a surety bond of $3,000 and that at least one-half or any partnership or corporation applicant be owned by an Arkansas resident.

Brown and Fair said they had offered to pay a privilege tax of $5 for each "juke box," as set out in an earlier law bill, had been turned down because of their refusal to follow the alleged discriminatory 1959 act.

Sunday. The charge was fighting and disrupting traffic.

Before the sun went down, a crowd of Negroes estimated by Mayor Lanz Navarre at 300 to 400 roamed up and down Biloxi streets.

Gun violence broke out at nightfall. Bullets and shotgun pellets wounded eight Negroes and two whites.

Andrew Parker, 17, a white youth, said Negroes shouted for him to stop as he drove near a Negro residential area. He stepped from his car and someone shot him, he said. He received a non-serious back wound.

Police said they arrested four Negroes driving in a car a block from the area where four Negroes and one white man were shot at 11:50 p.m. They identified the four as George Feall, 24; Paul Boarn, 34; Ernest Fair, 35, and Zeb Lowe, 29. The first three were

"I daresay she doesn't know what goes on in back of yours. Pete, why do you want her back?"

"Isn't it obvious?"

"That you want her back because she's Mrs. Peter Julius Jackson, II?"

He asked sullenly, "Isn't that a sufficient reason?"

"If I were Karen, it wouldn't be for me, Pete. I suppose you see many divorce seekers in a year's time, but you can't come up with a solution for yourself, can you?"

He said, "Karen's been talking to you, don't deny it."

"She talked with me once." (To Be Continued)

DeGaulle and Ike to End Strategy Talk

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and French President Charles de Gaulle wind up their summit strategy talks today, reportedly in agreement on a stand-pat Berlin policy but hopeful of a disarmament deal with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

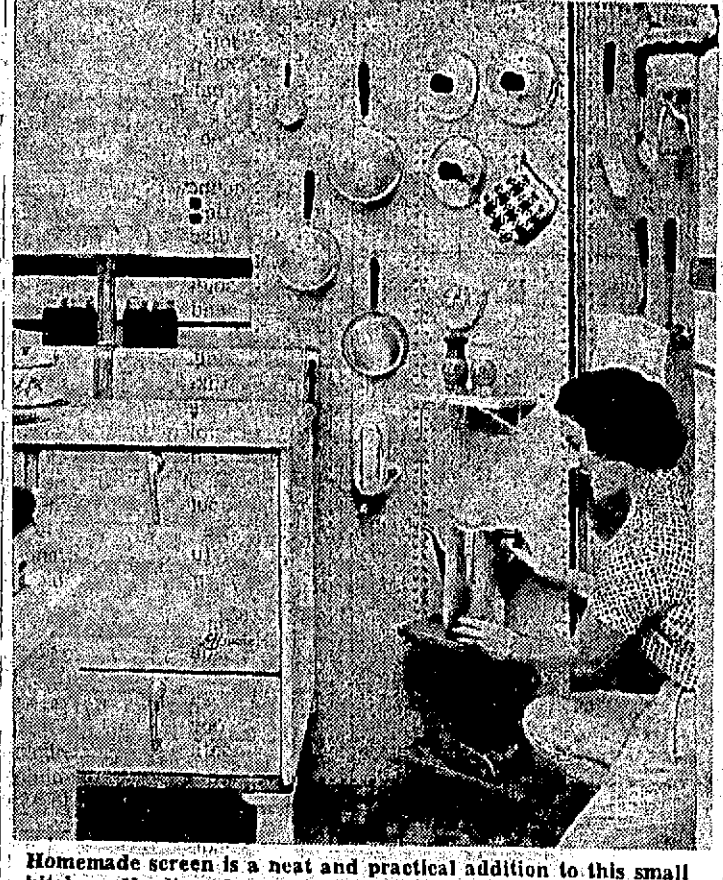

The two leaders scheduled a White House session with their foreign ministers for mid-morning. Immediately following the White House meeting De Gaulle arranged to address a joint session of Congress at the Capitol.

De Gaulle sees no hope at the summit for settlement of the Soviet-Western dispute over the future of Berlin. Eisenhower and he are agreed that the Western powers must stand firm on all their rights there in face of Khrushchev's demand that they withdraw their troops.

Since De Gaulle sees no way out of the deadlock he is believed to have made clear to Eisenhower that he would prefer to sidetrack Berlin negotiations at the summit. But Eisenhower feels that he is committed to negotiate with Khrushchev, however improbable the chance of any agreement at the sessions opening May 16 in Paris.

What decisions they reached were not disclosed, but the two men announced through spokesmen that "we are in agreement . . . as to how we shall proceed at the summit meeting."

Today's meeting was the first scheduled with Secretary of State Christian A. Harter and Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville in attendance. Previously on Friday and again Sunday at Camp David, Md., the President's Cabinet maintained retreat. Eisenhower and De Gaulle had only in-

DOROTHY DIX

Her Parents Don't Approve

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My girl attends a Midwestern university. I am recently returned from the service, now back at college. Prior to returning, I spent a few days with her and met her family. This weekend I received a letter from her saying, "Please do not write again. It would only be like rubbing salt in a fresh wound."

She had received a letter from her family saying, "The young man cannot come down as Mom is not equal to it." In other words, find someone else to plan your future with. She is 21, I am 23. During the two years we have known each other we shared many personal things which one just doesn't forget. Should I stop writing, wait for her or what?

Young Man in Love

Dear Young Man in Love: Parents rarely approve their children's choice of mates, especially where a daughter is concerned. My mother acted as if I were going to my funeral when I went to my wedding. At she came to love her son-in-law dearly in after years.

Your girl's letter reveals her love for you, as yours does for her. Don't let her parents block your happiness. Take them into camp. Find out their interests. Send the mother a thoughtful gift. Write the father a friendly note.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I would like to know if you have a book on how to write friendly letters. If so, please send me one. I am in the hospital. Thank you very much. — Gertrude Moore, Paragould Hospital, Crown Point, Indiana.

Dear Gertrude Moore: I have no book on how to write friendly letters. All I can say is, let your heart speak when you write to a friend.

There are many classic examples to which you might turn for inspiration, such as the letters of Mrs. John Abigail Adams; those of her descendant, Henry Adams, to his niece; the Family Letters of Christine Roselli; Benjamin Franklin's Writings, especially his letters to Mary Stevenson.

How about membership in a Pen Pal club? I am sending you my leaflet listing them. With the hope that it will open up a whole bright new world for you.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

When I take a girl out for dinner and dancing, I get annoyed ward Washington staff in 1955.

4-Candidate Race Shapes for Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A four-candidate race—with segregation as a dominant issue — shapes up for the Democratic gubernatorial race, barring last-minute filings. The deadline is Wednesday noon. Joe Hardin, 61-year-old Grady businessman-planter, Saturday became the fourth candidate to enter the political arena. He said he would file formally this week.

Hardin joins Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, 42, and college president H.E. Williams, 47, in opposing Gov. Orval E. Faubus' bid for nomination to an unprecedented fourth term.

All four declared candidates came out strongly for segregation and indicated it would be a key topic in the campaign before the July 26 primary election.

Boyd Tackell of Texarkana, attorney Eugene Warren of Little Rock, and singer Jimmie Driftwood of Timbo are among others whose names have figured in gubernatorial speculation.

Bennett has insisted that the race will draw at least six candidates and Faubus has said that another candidate—one he describes as an anti-Faubus "hatchet man"—would file. Neither, however, has offered any names.

Hardin took a verbal swing at Faubus in making his announcement.

"I am friendly enough to the state of Arkansas that I'm automatically a foe to the governor," Hardin told a news conference at his Grady home.

He described himself as a segregationist "but not a dynamiting segregationist."

"It is my hope that I can become the thinking man's candidate, connections with farming, business, date," Hardin said.

In a statement, Hardin cited his state administration and education as qualifications.

Court Judge's Body Found at Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—The death of Judge W. Lynn Parkinson, 57, whose body was found in Lake Michigan Sunday six months after he disappeared, has been attributed officially to drowning.

Autopsy evidence disclosed to day by the coroner's office dispelled all but a few shreds of uncertainty over his fate Oct. 26.

Recovery of the body near the edge of Chicago's new lake front filtration plant, less than one mile from where he was last seen, apparently solved a knotty legal problem of filling his seat on the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

The mystery of Judge Parkinson's disappearance had been heightened by reports that he was seen alive in various places from Chicago to Miami, Fla.

He was known to be sick and dazed as he headed toward his home from the appeals court. Finding of his glasses and umbrella handle near a subway walk leading to Oak Street beach led investigators to theorize he had gone walking beside the lake apparently hoping brisk air and exercise would make him feel better.

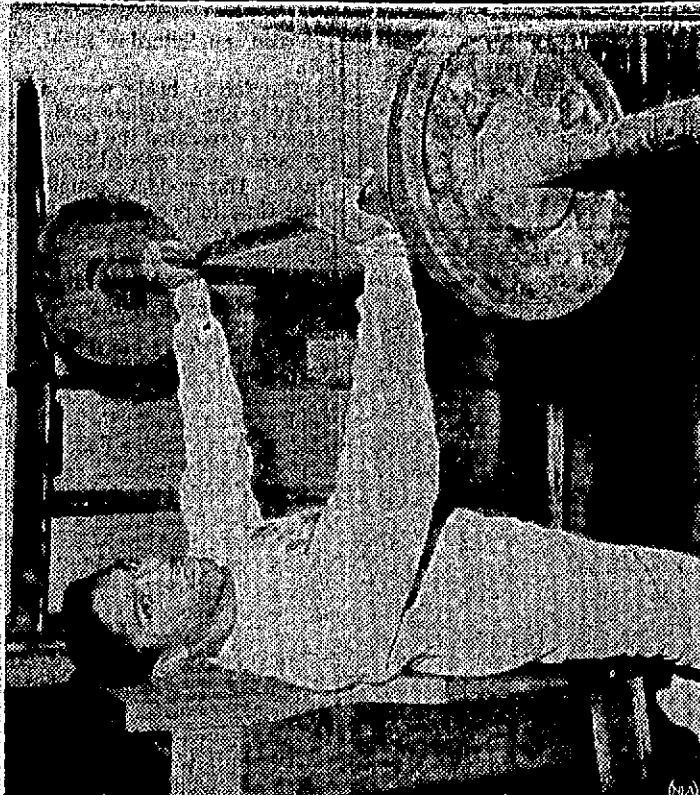

An extensive search by skin divers then failed to turn up clues, giving rise to speculation the judge had met with foul play.

His widow Elsie Ruth maintained that her husband was an amnesia victim.

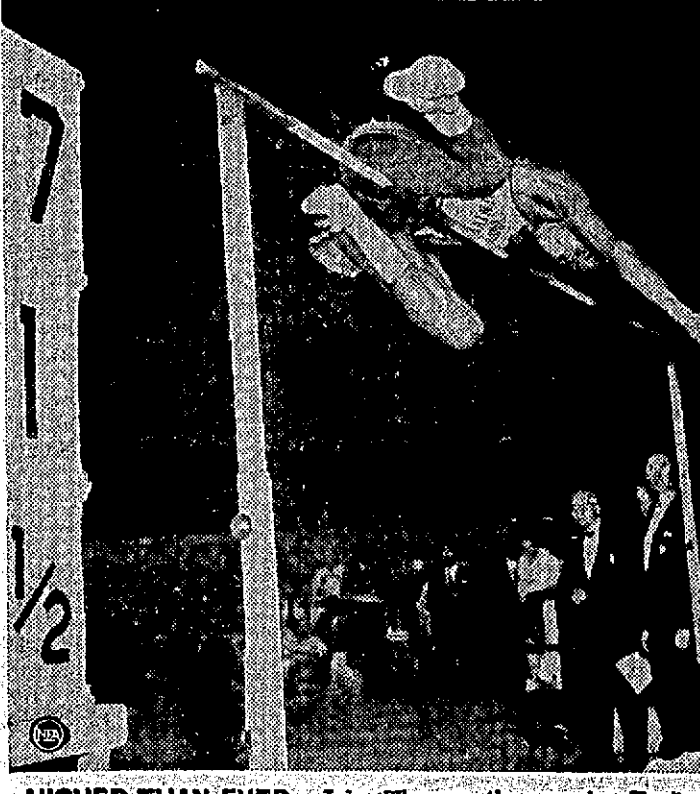

Judge Parkinson's son, William L. Parkinson Jr., who owns a dress shop in West Lafayette, Ind., said that his father was either "put in the lake or had an accident and fell in."

He ruled out suicide, saying, complete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

Mrs. Florence Conway, wife James Conway died suddenly at her home Saturday, April 23. Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

HIGHER THAN EVER—John Thomas, the amazing Boston University sophomore, rolls over the cross-bar at 7 feet 1 1/2 inches, highest jump ever reached in the track and field world.

"Dad wasn't the type to take his own life."

Coroner Walter McCarron said his office would investigate the possibility the judge was robbed. He said no money or jewelry was found on the body.

The judge, reported by his family to have suffered from low blood pressure, left his office about 4:30 p.m. Oct. 26 to walk to his home a few blocks away. He never made it.

In the next two hours, he was seen in cocktail lounges. Two men saw him stumble down an underpass near his office, where his glasses later were found. A cab driver and doorman helped him alight from a taxi at the Drake. Between 6:15 and 6:30 p.m. he was seen slouching down the arcade of the Drake. Then he vanished.

Wynn's Failure Yank Hurlers Change Picture

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Early Wynn's second straight failure, the slugging of the Detroit Tigers and the performance of the New York Yankees' young pitchers cast a new light on the American League situation today after only one week of the season.

Wynn was slugged for six runs in the first inning Sunday as Detroit humbled the defending champion Chicago White Sox, 12-4. The 40-year-old right-hander who won 22 games for the 1959 pennant winners had been knocked out on opening day by Kansas City.

Detroit's four big guns—Rocky Colavito, Steve Biko, Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell—didn't hit a homer but the Tigers got help from an unexpected source.

Casey Wise, who hit one homer in the last three years in the majors, hit two Lou Berberet, a 21st last year, hammered a grand slammer off Wynn, clinching that big first inning.

The Yankees tried an American League record by scoring eight runs in the first inning before Baltimore could get anybody out. Although Jim Coates, an opening day winner, weakened and needed relief the issue never was in doubt in a 15-9 Yankee victory.

Cleveland finally got into the win column, shutting out Kansas City 7-0 on Gary Bell's six-hitter and Woody Held's two home runs. Washington had to call on Camilo Pascual in relief to hold an 11-0 decision over Boston.

The National League matched the American's total of 15 homers to make it 30 for the day, including four grand slamners. Three grand slamners in the American by Berberet and Albie Pearson and Billy Klaus of the Orioles tied the major league record.

Pittsburgh took over the National League lead by beating Milwaukee 7-3. The Chicago Cubs scored seven in the eighth, knocking San Francisco out of first place 9-4. Stan Musial and Ken Boyer homered for St. Louis as the Cardinals won their fourth straight, downing Los Angeles 7-2. Rookie Jim Coker hit a grand slammer for the Phillies in their first game victory over Cincinnati 9-5 but the Reds took the second 10-4 on homers by Roy McMillan, Eddie Kasko and Frank Robinson.

Detroit has saved 11 home runs in its last four games. Jimmy Dykes, the manager, must be wondering what is happening. A baseball.

Red Leader in Warning on Berlin

By A. I. GOLDBERG

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev declared today that the Western powers will lose even their rights to fly into Berlin if he signs a separate peace treaty with East Germany.

And he warned the Soviet Union is prepared to meet "force with force."

Outlining the Soviet position for the summit meeting, Khrushchev repeated that "of course we shall go it alone" and sign an East German peace treaty if the Western powers "ignore the issue contrary to common sense."

but he said that "the Soviet government believes that common sense will prevail."

The Soviet leader spoke at Baku, Soviet oil center. His speech, at a jubilee celebration of the 40th anniversary of the Azerbaijan Communist party, was reported by the Soviet news agency Tass.

Khrushchev told his audience that a peace treaty with East Germany—which the West refuses to recognize as a sovereign state—would put an end to the World War I surrender terms.

This is the position he has taken all along. But he went further to mention the airplanes, which the Western Allies are believed to be planning to use—as in the 1948 airlift—if East Germany takes over the land routes.

"If the Western powers did not choose to sign a peace treaty, that would not entitle them to the rights they want preserved. They would naturally then forfeit the right of access to West Berlin by land, water and air," he said.

Berlin, 100 miles from West Germany, is surrounded by the Communist East. The United States, Britain and France have stationed troops there as an outpost of the West since World War II.

Western leaders have insisted they will not negotiate with Khrushchev under the threat of any Berlin ultimatum.

Khrushchev told the Baku meeting disarmament is the first problem for the summit. The deadlock on disarmament, he said, is "the greatest roadblock in the way to a strengthened peace on this planet."

President Charles de Gaulle of France has said disarmament should be the leading topic at the summit meeting. This appears to be the view among Western leaders.

"The second issue, which affects the interests of many nations, is conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany, including the normalization of West Berlin," Khrushchev said.

"Conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany would at the same time mean liquidation of the occupation regime in West Berlin and, consequently, the withdrawal of the occupation troops from there."

It was Khrushchev's first major speech since he returned April 3 from his trip to France.

He said the Soviet Union is going to next month's summit talks in Paris with the utmost sincerity to ease tension.

The Soviet Premier said that he foresees good results from the meeting of the heads of government, declaring "everybody wants peace except adventurists and reactionists."

14 Violent Deaths in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fourteen violent deaths occurred in Arkansas during the week ending at midnight yesterday. Nine persons died during the weekend.

Five were killed in traffic accidents during the week, five by drowning, one in a fire, one in a plane crash and two in industrial accidents.

A father and his 8-year-old son drowned yesterday in a stock pond near Texarkana after the horse they were riding either fell in the pond or threw them in, the victims were Robert Lee Evans 29, and his son, Bruce.

Two Dermott men, Carl Stover, 45, and Henry Joyner, 32, drowned after their boat overturned while they were fishing on Macon Lake about 10 miles southeast of Dermott.

Castell (Doc) Herrington, 50, of McGehee, drowned in a mishap on Lake Chicot in southeast Arkansas. Other boaters said they saw Herrington trying to start his boat, then saw the boat circling in the water with Herrington nowhere in sight.

Mrs. Thomas E. Hemm, 55, of Pottsville, was killed Saturday night when the car in which she was riding was involved in a 2-car wreck on Highway 64 three miles west of Pottsville. Two other persons were injured, but not seriously.

Mrs. Nora Rowton, 64, of Norman, was killed Sunday night in a 2-car head-on collision on the outskirts of Glenwood, 30 miles west of Norman.

receipts might even top last year, it was predicted.

Last October, the department had predicted a decline of perhaps 7 to 8 per cent in farm income this year.

Pirates Riding in First Place in National

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

"They can't write us off. We were only three games out on the first of September."

Everybody smiled and looked wise when Danny Murtaugh, the Pittsburgh manager, boldly stated his case in March at Fort Myers, Fla.

Murtaugh's analysis looks solid at this early stage of the National League race. The season is only two weeks old but his Pirates are riding in first place.

The Pirates snaked into the lead Sunday by knocking off Milwaukee 7-3 while the San Francisco Giants were losing to the Chicago Cubs 9-4.

It was Pittsburgh's big purse tonight when he faces the fifth straight victory and its eighth in 11 starts.

Once again it was Elroy Face walking from the bullpen to save the day. Harvey Haddix had been rolling along with a 7-0 shutout going to the ninth.

A double by Joe Adcock, a walk, a double by Johnny Logan, a sacrifice fly and another double by pinchhitter Mike Krivich finished Haddix. In came Face to strike out pinchhitter Charley Lau and end the game by making Red Schoendienst ground out.

The Giants had a 4-2 lead going to the eighth when Billy O'Dell was replaced by Billy Loes. When the inning was over the Cubs had seven runs and the ball game. Don Elston was the winner.

Solly Hemus' St. Louis Cardinals won their fourth straight, after losing their first five, hammering Los Angeles pitching for a 7-2 decision. Ken Boyer hit his fifth homer and old man Stan Musial poled No. 2.

Liston Will Keep Busy, He Declares

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sonny Liston doesn't intend to let dust gather on his gloves or watch his bankroll dwindle while waiting for a heavyweight title.

Unbeaten in 5½ years, the husky, second-ranking challenger goes after his 22nd victory and a big purse tonight when he faces Roy Harris, the No. 6 contender, at Houston, Tex.

The 10-rounder at the Sam Houston Coliseum will gross around $70,000 in Houston and will be beamed via closed circuit television to arenas in 10 other cities in seven states. The fighters will share in the TV deal, put together by the promoting Texas Boxing Enterprises and Giant View TV of Detroit.

This is the largest closed circuit hookup for a nontitle fight. The heavyweight clash will be shown on huge screens in the 10 other arenas and will top a live card of boxing in each place. On the network are arenas at Dallas, San Antonio and Odessa, Tex., New Orleans, Miami Beach, Mobile, Ala., Atlanta, Baltimore, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

Liston, a husky, 25-year-old now fighting out of Houston, is favored at 2-1 and up odds. He has a 28-1 record, including 19 kayos.

Harris, of Cut and Shoot, Tex., has a 30-1 record, including eight kayos. The rangy, 26-year-old boxer's lone loss was on a 12th-round technical knockout to Floyd Patterson, then the heavyweight king, in a title scrap Aug. 18, 1958. He has won seven straight since then.

Henry Hank, hard-hitting middleweight contender from Detroit, takes on aggressive Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y., in another top fight tonight at San Francisco. Hank has won six straight and could go all the way to the title if he gets a chance.

Two other interesting bouts are on tap for Tuesday. Young welterweight contenders Emile Griffith of New York and Denny Moyer of Portland, Ore., clash in a return 10-rounder at Portland.

Ore. Griffith barely nosed out Moyer in a lively fight at New York last month.

Pete Rademacher, the 1956 Olympic heavyweight king who has been campaigning in Europe, takes on Brian London, the former British champion, at London, Eng. 62. Six persons were injured, two landed in hospital.

Score Makes No Alibis, Hurls Tonight

DETROIT (AP)—Herb Score, a young man with a question mark arm, makes no alibis for his bad performances and wants no sympathy for his misfortunes.

He is not going to worry about a so-called comeback and he refuses to set any sort of a goal for himself.

But a lot of people will be waiting with more than casual interest at Kansas City tonight when the fireballing left-hander faces the Kansas City Athletics.

The Chicago White Sox are counting on the 26-year-old former Cleveland Indian flame thrower to pull them out of a pitching tailspin. The Sox have not had a route-going performance in five starts.

"You can't make excuses when you're lousy," Score said Sunday. "I don't have any alibis. My motion and my coordination were all fouled up and I never got straightened out. I couldn't get my curve ball over all last season."

Score, five seasons with the Indians, broke in with a 16-10 mark and 245 strikeouts in 1955. The following year he was 20-9 with 263 strikeouts.

A line drive off the bat of Gil McDougald struck Score in the eye on May 7, 1957. His record has been mediocre ever since.

The Indians' General Manager Frank Lane traded Score to the White Sox last week for Barry Latman, a right-handed pitcher.
